Help for citizens

Employment services are provided to assist and support jobseekers, candidates and employees through active labour market measures, which include:

- job placement;
- provision of professional counselling services;
- training and preparation for the labour market;
- provision of benefits and allowances.

Job search

You can find the current job vacancies on the website Online Guide to the Labour Market (istp.sk).

Register of vacancies and job placement services

A citizen who wants to work and is looking for a job can make themselves available to the relevant Office of Labour, Social Affairs and Family and ask for registration as a jobseeker. Being a registered jobseeker is a citizen's right, not their duty.

Professional counselling services
